

Hawaii State Ethics Commission State of Hawaii Resolution

Whereas, the Hawaii State Ethics Commission upholds the principle, affirmed by the people of Hawaii in Article XIV of the Hawaii State Constitution, that public officers and employees must exhibit the highest standards of ethical conduct; and

Whereas, the Hawaii State Ethics Commission proudly recognizes individuals who commit themselves to this principle and who make significant contributions to promote ethics in government; and

Whereas, Jean Aoki has demonstrated her commitment to ethics in government as an advocate, on behalf of The League of Women Voters of Hawaii, for strong, effective ethics legislation in Hawaii; and

Whereas, through her distinguished service on behalf of The League of Women Voters of Hawaii, Jean Aoki has helped to focus public attention on the need for strong ethics legislation in order to maintain the highest ethical standards in government; and

Whereas, Jean Aoki has provided a valuable contribution to the State of Hawaii and its citizens through her efforts to ensure the integrity of government and public confidence in government; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved that the Hawaii State Ethics Commission hereby commends and congratulates Jean Aoki for her outstanding contribution to ethics in government.

Dated: Honolulu, Hawaii, August 21, 2002.

Hawaii State Ethics Commission

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Ronald R. Yoshida", is written over a horizontal line.

Ronald R. Yoshida, Chairperson

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Dawn Suyenaga", is written over a horizontal line.

Dawn Suyenaga, Vice Chairperson

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Nadine Y. Ando", is written over a horizontal line.

Nadine Y. Ando, Commissioner

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Eloise Lee", is written over a horizontal line.

Eloise Lee, Commissioner

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Carl Morton, M.D.", is written over a horizontal line.

Carl Morton, M.D., Commissioner